

Distinguished President Award

Awarded to the most outstanding Club Presidents and/or Vice-Presidents in the District.

Rules and Requirements:

- Each Key Club, in good standing with the District, may nominate up to one (1) President and/or one (1) Vice-President of their club.
- Please attach to this form a report of a maximum of 500 words, written by the nominee, giving details regarding their achievements as President/Vice-President and addressing any extenuating circumstances that may have prevented the nominee from fulfilling all criteria.
- Five (5) letters supporting the nominee, preferably from the Sponsoring Kiwanis Club and Divisional Lieutenant-Governor, may accompany your club's nomination. No additional letters will be considered.
- There must be a net increase in the number of active members in the club when compared to the previous service year.
- The club must submit an Annual Club Achievement Report.
- The nominee must have been in office at least four (4) months prior to the District Convention.
- The Key Club District Board shall select the recipient(s) of this award from the nominations received. Their decision shall be final.

The winning Club President(s)/Vice-President(s) will be recognized during District Convention.
