Eastern Canada District

District Service Project Contest

Clubs who participate in the Governor's District Service Project (DSP) are eligible for this award. The DSP for 2019-2020 service year is Doctors without Borders. Complete a report of your project(s) on the entry forms. The awards will be presented during District Convention. The report for the District Service Project should only include activities undertaken from District Convention in the previous year to District Convention in the current year. The top 3 will be ranked first, second, and third.
